

Janet Jupp
Catering Manager

After leaving Catering College, Janet worked for Batchelors Foods in the development department creating new recipes for brands like Vesta and Cup-a-Soup. She moved from there to become the Catering Manager at Chichester College. Later, Janet set up her own business making homemade cakes for local farm shops and other outlets. In recent years she has enjoyed cooking for Movies for Memories and other events organised by Selsey Community Forum. Janet has two daughters and five grand children.
