

Karen Halford

SDAA Lead & Support Manager

Karen has worked in the care industry for over 20 years starting as a Carer and worked her way up to Care home manager. Working along side some amazing teams from Medical to Social workers and spent time working with St Wilfrids Hospice on their six steps programme learning to deliver care at end of life. Karen is a qualified trainer, enjoys all aspects of training, and lives in Selsey with her family and her elderly mother. One of her daughters is a teacher, her son is training to be a nurse and works in a dementia unit and her youngest daughter is a carer who is qualified to care for people at end of life.
Karen spends any spare time in her garden.